EasyChair is a conference management system. By creating an account in EasyChair, a user will be able to use that same account in different conferences that make use of this platform, without the need of creating a new account for each conference. If you already have an account in EasyChair (for example from previous CIMODE), just fill in the form with your username and password (refer to figure 1) and move to Step 5 - Submission.

If you forgot your username or password, use the option "Forgot your password" to recover this information and move to Step 5 - Submission.

If you are a new user, proceed with step 2.

Step 2: Begin Easychair Registration

If you don't have an Easychair account, choose "Sign up for an account".

A new page will appear (refer to figure 2), which asks you to reproduce a sequence of characters. This is a security measure of the platform. Just enter the sequence of characters in the form and click "continue". If, for some reason, the characters are unreadable, you can ask for a new sequence.
